

No trophy, No prize, No Game

Quote from a skype room conversation:

"Read the essays until it clicks big fucking click...you won't miss it...honest... they're all about the traps and how the legal name is the key to their whole illusion the "click" happens when you finally turn that key fully no name, no game....if one is "in" Babylon say via a check or the like, one is not of Babylon by using that to share the truth at the SAME time the outcome, every outcome is reliant upon one thing...intent if one seeks profit or if one seeks only survival to get the word out...that's where i live...the ladder/latter this game is ALL about you and your choices of intent mine is to set all children free of this satanic realm you, me, everyone that chooses that path easy peasy.... when "they" try to shut you up, you're saying all the right things....lived there for years and I'm still yapping eh?...lol because "they" can't cant their can't cant with me a-post-trophy's???.....fuck dat to post trophy's.....I'm no trophy, no prize, no game they can hunt they need the spiritual tracker one sticks to self or remove...legal name tracker thingy that has one in fraud the instant they THINK they're one rrrriiiiiiippppp!
yup, that tore a strip out of me...good thing it wasn't overgrown with skin too much when i ripped that bond-age off eh? band-age bond-age...same shit ripping a long overdue bandage off is the allegory metaphor to describe what it feels like spiritually...same thing, less physically painful though since any pain from this literal reality is illusionally thrust upon all of us collectively and it is ALL based in the one lie.....legal name.....not an opinion, just a matter of fact.....hope that's helpful for some in here..." - Kate of Gaia
